Madeira, December 14, O. S.

VICE Admiral Davers arrived here upon the 7th, having met with a great deal of bad Weather in his Paſſage. The firſt Night after he ſailed, he loſt Company with moſt of the Fleet, but within three Days after his Arrival here, Capt. Legge in the Strafford, with the Enterpriſe and Merlin, and about 20 Sail of Merchant Ships, joined him, and To-morrow he propoſes to ſail for Barbadoes.

Stockholm, Feb. 12, O. S. On Thurſday laſt about Noon, the Princeſs Royal was taken extremely ill, and continued ſo till next Morning, when ſhe had the Misfortune to miſcarry. An Expreſs being immediately ſent with an Account of this Accident to the King and Prince Succeſſor, who were at Grimſholm, taking the Pleaſure of hunting, his Royal Highneſs came to Town the ſame Morning, and the King in the Afternoon. The Princeſs had a little Fever on her the two firſt Days after her Miſcarriage, but having ſince been let Blood, ſhe is, at preſent, in a pretty good State of Health again. One Day laſt Week died upon his Eſtate in Oſtergothland, Lieutenant General Count Spence, a Gentleman deſcended of an Engliſh Family: He had a Regiment of Horſe called Le Regiment du Corps, the Command of which, will now, as it is ſaid, be conferr'd on Colonel Ungern, the Marſhal of the laſt Diet. We have now ſeven Poſts due from Petersbourg, ſo that we have no Account as yet if the Empreſs be returned thither, or of any Buſineſs that may be tranſacting there; but by Letters from Poland and other Parts, we are informed, that there are great Motions amongſt the Troops in Livonia and on the Frontiers of Pruſſia.

Oporto, Feb. 21. By Advices from Cadiz of the 17th of January, ſeven French Men of War were then in that Bay, preparing to ſail in a few Days for the Iſland of Martinico, and three Spaniſh Men of War were to accompany them, and a great Number of Marines were put on board, which, it was ſuppoſed, were deſigned for the Ships at the Havanna, to enable them to come to Europe.

Copenhagen, March 2. Laſt Night the French Miniſter gave a publick Entertainment, conſiſting of a Supper and a Ball, upon Occaſion of the Dauphin's Marriage. The Duke and Dutcheſs of Wirtemberg, the Ladies, and Chief Officers of the ſeveral Courts, with other Perſons of Diſtinction to the Number of about 128, aſſiſted at it.

Faro, March 2. Five French Men of War are lately returned to the Bay of Cadiz. A French Merchantman, in Regiſter from Vera Cruz, is alſo arrived in the ſaid Bay with a Cargo of very conſiderable Value.

Vienna, March 4, N. S. The Sickneſs amongſt the Pruſſian Troops in Sileſia continues. We have Accounts, that there are no leſs than four Places ſhut up by themſelves, in order to prevent the Spreading of the Infection. In twelve Hours the Diſtemper is begun and ended, and is generally mortal. Our Army in Upper Sileſia has received 5000 Recruits from Bohemia, and ſeveral are daily ſent into Italy to augment the Army there. The Hungarian Inſurgents in the Dutchy of Oppelen are continually skirmiſhing with the Pruſſians, but without any great Loſſes on either Side.

Vienna, March 6. General Brown is gone to Bavaria, to take the Command of the Troops there, but it will be hardly poſſible for him to enter upon Action, unleſs forced to it, in leſs than three or four Weeks.

Berlin, March 9, N. S. It is given out here, that the Pruſſian Army in Sileſia is already compleated, and that it will act the next Campaign in four different Corps under the Command of the King of Pruſſia, the reigning Prince of Deſſau, Prince Leopold, and Veld Marſhal Schwerin. The King's Kitchen ſets out for Sileſia upon the 11th, and his Majeſty will follow upon the 15th.

Dreſden, March 10, N. S. On Friday laſt his Poliſh Majeſty and the Electoral Prince received the Compliments of a numerous Court, on Occaſion of its being their Names-Day. After which his Majeſty dined in the Prince's Apartment with the Foreign Miniſters and ſeveral other Perſons of the firſt Quality. At each Health a Salvo was given of the Cannon on the Ramparts,

(Price Two-Pence.)

Ramparts. In the Evening was a grand Appearance, and a Concert of Muſick at Court; and Count Bruhl, whoſe Houſe and Garden were finely illuminated, gave a ſplendid Entertainment to the Foreign Miniſters, and about fourſcore other Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes. The next Day Baron Erthal, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Elector of Mentz, had a publick Audience of the King of Poland; to which he was conducted by M. Fitt, Maſter of the Ceremonies. He ſets out to Night for Prague and Vienna, from whence he propoſes to return hither in about three Weeks. M. de Vaugrenan is to come hither as Miniſter from France, in the room of M. St. Severin.

Hamburgh, March 12, N. S. We have Advice here from Copenhagen that the Pregnancy of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Denmark has been publickly declared at that Court, and that Prayers are ordered to be put up in the ſeveral Churches for her ſafe Delivery. The ſame Letters add, that it was thought their Daniſh Majeſties intended to make an Excurſion into Holſtein ſome time next Month. The King of Pruſſia has drawn ſucceſſively from Jutland and the Holſtein Country 5000 Horſes to remount his Cavalry. Count Bunaw, the late Emperor's Miniſter, ſet out from hence Yeſterday in great Haſte, to reach Berlin before the King ſhould have left that Place for his Army in Sileſia. Letters from Bavaria bring Advice, that the Auſtrians had begun to put themſelves in Motion on the Side of Braunau and Chamb, and that General Bernclau having advanced towards Vilzhoven with a Body of Troops, the Elector had immediately detached 8000 Men to ſuccour that Place. We learn by our Letters from Franckfort of the 6th Inſtant, that the French Troops, whoſe Head Quarters were at Groſs Gerau, were cantonned between Mentz and Hochſt, were daily reinforced, and that ſeveral Territories of the Empire were extreamly harraſſed by them, particularly the Country of Darmſtadt. Theſe Letters add, that the Allied Forces were approached within three Leagues of Franckfort to Fridberg. The Sickneſs in the Pruſſian Army in Sileſia ſtill continues, and carries off great Numbers daily. There is a Report here, upon Account of the Illneſs of the old Prince of Anhalt-Deſſau, Field Marſhal Schwerin is to be again employed. The Diſtemper amongſt the horned Cattle in Holſtein ſtill rages, and ſpreads itſelf.

Hague, March 16. We have Advice here of the French having paſſed the Mayn in three different Places, and as if they intended to attack ſome of the Poſts of the Allies, or to diſpute their March towards the upper Mayn.

Whitehall, March 12.

The King has been pleaſed to order a Commiſſion to paſs the Great Seal of Great Britain, conſtituting and appointing his Royal Highneſs William Auguſtus Duke of Cumberland, Captain General of all and ſingular his Majeſty's Land Forces, raiſed or to be raiſed, and employed in his Majeſty's Service within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and alſo of all and ſingular his Majeſty's Land Forces, which are, or ſhall be employed abroad, in Conjunction with the Troops of his Majeſty's Allies.

Admiralty-Office, March 12.

His Majeſty's Ship the Cheſter, commanded by Captain Geary, and the Sunderland, commanded by Capt. Brett, being on a Cruize in the Soundings, on the 20th of laſt Month, at half an Hour paſt Ten o'Clock in the Morning, they ſaw a Sail to which they gave Chace; at ſix in the Evening, her Maintopmaſt going by the Board, ſhe ſtruck her Colours. She proved to be a French Man of War of 20 Guns, and 134 Men, beſides the Superintendant of Miſſiſippi, with his Wife and Family, two Merchants, and ſome French Land Officers, who were Paſſengers, bound from Miſſiſippi to Rochfort. She had 24000 Pieces of Eight, ſome Indigo, Hides, Logwood, and Tobacco on board.
